a) Qn. 67/03/01 [5 Minutes]

In 2007 the Police Council, the governing body of the Uganda Police Force resolved to form a SACCO with a view to pull resources from the Police staff for investment, in order to reduce poverty among its members. Exodus SACCO was accordingly registered under Registration Number 8404/RCS. By May 2012, the SACCO had registered a membership of over 16,314 and was worth two billion shillings.

Several complaints have been registered against the operations of the SACCO by Police Officers who allege that they are mandatorily required to join the membership of Exodus SACCO right from the Training Wing where Cadet Officer trainees are made to pay Shs.100,000 monthly while other ranks are made to pay Shs.50,000 as monthly contribution towards their membership in the SACCO.

They further complain that they are not allowed to withdraw any of their savings from the SACCO and if they are to withdraw, stringent conditions are set for the withdrawal.

Hon. Mbwarekamwa Gaffa, MP Kasambya County to ask the Hon. Minister of Internal Affairs the following:

- i) Why do the Police authorities force Police Officers to join and save with the Exodus SACCO?
- ii) Why does the management of Exodus SACCO deny the savers to withdraw their savings when need arises and if any is allowed to withdraw, why do they set stringent conditions for the withdrawal?

b) Qn. 66/03/01 [5 Minutes]

According to the Bank of Uganda Act, 75% of the profits made by Bank of Uganda (BOU) forms part of the consolidated funds available for government expenditure

Hon. Kenneth Lubogo, MP Bulamogi County to ask the Hon. Minister of Finance, Planning and Economic Development the following:

- i) How much profits or losses has BOU made annually for the last fifteen years?
- ii) When was the last time BOU made profits; and how much was transferred to the Consolidated Fund?
