PART II—ESTABLISHMENT OF THE UNIVERSITY

4. (1) There is hereby established a university to be known as Uganda Christian University, which shall be constituted in accordance with this Charter.

Establishment and Incorporation

(2) Uganda Christian University is a private, non-profit-making educational institution established by the Church of Uganda to provide Christian-based higher education, training and research for the expansion of God’s Kingdom and the betterment of society.

(3) The University shall be a body corporate with perpetual succession and a common seal and shall, in its corporate name, be capable of—

- (a) taking, purchasing or otherwise acquiring, holding, charging and disposing of movable and immovable property;
- (b) borrowing or lending money;
- (c) suing and being sued;
- (d) entering into contracts with Government, other institutions and individuals;
- (e) receiving bequests and gifts which shall be used for the purposes stated by the persons making such bequests and gifts;
- (f) doing all such other things as are incidental to the attainment of all the objectives and functions of the University.

5. The use of the Common Seal of the University shall be as follows—

- (1) The Common Seal shall be kept in custody by the Secretary to the University Council and shall be used upon the order and direction of the Council.
- (2) The Common Seal shall be authenticated by the signature of the Chairperson of the Council, the Vice Chancellor or any other person specifically appointed by the Council and duly authorized by the Council in that behalf.
- (3) The Common Seal of the University, when affixed to any document and duly authenticated under this section, shall be judicially and officially noticed; and unless and until the contrary is proven, any necessary order or authorisation of the Council under this section shall be presumed to have been duly given.

6. The main campus of Uganda Christian University is located at Mukono, Uganda. It is the successor to Bishop Tucker Theological College. Subject to this Charter, all rights, duties, obligations, assets and liabilities of Bishop Tucker Theological College existing at the commencement of this Charter shall be automatically and fully transferred to Uganda Christian University, and any reference to Bishop Tucker Theological College in any contract or document shall for all purposes be deemed to be a reference to Uganda Christian University as established under section 4 of this Charter.

7. Uganda Christian University is dedicated through teaching, scholarship, service, spiritual formation, student development and social involvement to the preparation of students for thoughtful, productive lives of Christian faith and service in their respective professions and places.

8. (1) The Christian identity of Uganda Christian University is summarized in the motto "God the Beginning and the End" and is articulated in its Instruments of Identity. The Instruments of Identity, which include a Rule of Life, shall be consistent with the teaching of the Church of Uganda and shall be approved and maintained by the Proprietors of the University through the University Council.

(2) Academic Freedom. Within the parameters of subsection (1) above, academic staff and students are expected to engage in thorough academic research and vigorous exchange of ideas in the tradition of Christian liberal education.

PART III—OBJECTS AND FUNCTIONS OF THE UNIVERSITY

9. The objects of the University shall be—

- (a) to provide resources for higher education, excellence in teaching, and promotion of research and advancement of learning within the context of Christian truth, practice and spirituality;
- (b) to provide, with other Christian institutions, academic leadership to the church in Uganda and Africa so as to address through research, education and consultation, the economic, social and political problems of the Ugandan and African society and those challenges unique to the church of Christ;

The Mission of the University

Christian Identity and Academic Freedom

Objects of the University

Location of the University

- (c) to provide adequate resources for quality university education, training and research based on biblical concepts and values which reflect the Ugandan and African cultural heritage;
- (d) to guide students to understand and accept themselves, their individual needs and talents, and to develop their potential for productive life and service;
- (e) to provide students with a balanced educational programme that helps them to develop professional skills and to broaden their perception so as to develop a holistic approach to life;
- (f) to offer students the opportunity to commit their lives to Jesus Christ and to equip students to live out Christ's Great Commission (Matthew 28:18-20);
- (g) to play an effective role in the development and expansion of university education in Uganda and Africa.

10. The functions of the University shall be—

- (a) to provide resources for university education, training and research and for the establishment or recognition of Constituent Colleges, affiliated institutions, faculties, departments, institutes and other academic bodies as the University Council may from time to time determine;
- (b) to determine who may teach, who may be taught, what may be taught and how it may be taught in the University;
- (c) to conduct research and encourage the conduct of research which enlarges the province of human knowledge in general, and increases the effectiveness of the church in particular;
- (d) to assist in the preservation, processing, transmission and dissemination of knowledge and in the stimulation of the intellectual life and cultural development of the students and the Ugandan and African church and society;

- (e) to conduct examinations for, and grant degrees, diplomas, certificates and other awards of the University;
- (f) to provide a balanced programme and experiences for harmonious and holistic development of students and staff;
- (g) to carry out any other functions as may be permitted and approved by the University Council.

11. The University shall admit for study for degrees, diplomas, certificates or other awards of the University, such candidates as shall have been accepted by the University Senate as being academically qualified and who formally undertake to respect the University's Instruments of Identity and to follow its Rule of Life as set out in section 8(1).

Admission

The University may use diverse criteria for determining merit in admission, but there shall be no discrimination on grounds of sex, ethnic origin, race, colour, political opinion or physical disability, and no person shall be excluded solely on grounds of creed or religion.

PART IV—MEMBERSHIP OF THE UNIVERSITY

12. (1) The members of the University shall be—

Members

- (a) the Chancellor;
- (b) the Registered Trustees of the Church of Uganda;
- (c) the Chairperson of the University Council;
- (d) the members of the Council;
- (e) the Vice Chancellor;
- (f) the Deputy Vice Chancellors;
- (g) the members of the University Senate;
- (h) the professors and lecturers of the University;

- (i) the University Librarian, Bursar, and Dean of Students;
- (j) the students of the University;
- (k) the members of the Alumni Association;
- (l) such other members of staff of the University, or of any other body, formally admitted into association with the University, as the Council may from time to time determine.

(2) Members of the University listed under subsection (1)(a)-(i) above shall affirm the University's Instruments of Identity as stated under section 8(1). Students of the University (1)(j) shall respect the University's Instruments of Identity and follow its Rule of Life throughout their time at the University. Members of the University under subsection (1)(k)-(l) above shall respect the University's Instruments of Identity.

Constituent Colleges

13. (1) The University Council, with the concurrence of the Senate and the approval of the National Council for Higher Education, may—

- (a) establish any college or institution as a Constituent College of the University; or
- (b) with the approval of the institution, declare a Private Tertiary Institution as a Constituent College of the University.

(2) Where the University Council establishes or declares a college or Private Tertiary Institution to be a Constituent College of the University—

- (a) the Chancellor of the University shall appoint a Principal on the recommendation of the University Council from up to three candidates nominated by the Senate;

- (b) subject to subsection (4), the University Council shall appoint members of the academic and administrative staff and other employees of the Constituent College in accordance with the Statutes;
- (c) the Governing Council of the former College or Private Tertiary Institution shall function and have such responsibilities as are provided by the Statutes of the University relating to Constituent Colleges of that University.

(3) For the avoidance of doubt, a College or Private Tertiary Institution declared to be a Constituent College under subsection (1) above shall cease to be a body corporate and all rights, assets and liabilities of the Governing Council of that institution shall vest in the University Council to which it is a Constituent College to the same extent and for the same estate and interest as they were previously vested in the Governing Council and shall be held and enjoyed in trust and for the benefit of the Constituent College.

(4) Where the University Council declares a Private Tertiary Institution to be a Constituent College of the University, it shall make provision for the transfer to the University of the staff and employees of the institution whose services are required.

(5) All continuing students of an institution declared to be a Constituent College of the University shall transfer to the Constituent College for their studies without any further assurance; and all subsequent recruitment of students to, and the conduct of courses of study in, the College shall be made in accordance with procedures and standards set by the University.

14. (1) A college or Tertiary Institution may, for the purpose of promoting its academic programmes, and with the approval of the National Council, affiliate with the University if—

- (a) its institutional standards of performance, operations and conduct are acceptable to the University Council;

Affiliated Institutions

(b) its institutional standards conform to the standards set by the National Council for Higher Education;

(c) it formally undertakes to respect the Instruments of Identity of the University.

(2) An affiliated college or Tertiary Institution shall remain a Tertiary Institution and as such, for all intents and purposes shall—

(a) retain its status, administration and organisational structure as they were before affiliation; and

(b) be independent of the University to which it is affiliated and only depend on the University to the extent agreed upon.

(3) A college or Tertiary Institution affiliated to the University shall, as may be agreed to in relation to awards, conduct courses leading to awards of degrees, diplomas or certificates of the University under standards provided by the Act and under Statutes and guidelines of the University, and shall in connection with the relevant awards, jointly conduct examinations leading to those awards.

(4) The University may enter into various types of academic linkages or affiliations with other recognized institutions.

15. (1) In addition to its regular programme, the University may conduct alternative programmes leading to awards of degrees, diplomas or certificates at different times and places and by different modes of delivery, such as evening, recess, extension, and distance courses. Such courses must be approved by the University Senate and must offer instruction and facilities comparable with those courses offered to all other students of the University.

(2) Any location where alternative programmes are regularly offered may be designated a campus of Uganda Christian University by the University Council.

(j) the composition and procedures of the meetings of the academic staff and Alumni Association;

(k) providing for or prescribing anything which under the Charter may be provided for or prescribed in the Statutes.

(2) Statutes shall be made by a resolution passed at one meeting of the Council, supported by a majority of not less than two-thirds of the membership present and voting at that meeting, provided that such Statutes shall not be in contravention of any provision of this Charter or the Act.

Protection of Name

44. (1) Notwithstanding the provisions of any other written law, no public officer performing the functions relating to the registration of companies or business names, shall accept for such registration any name which includes together the word "University" and the word "Uganda Christian" unless the application for such registration is accompanied by the written consent of the University Council.

(2) Any person who, except with the written consent of the Council, uses the word "University" and the word "Uganda Christian" in furtherance of, or in connection with any advertisement for any trade, business, calling or profession, shall be guilty of an offence under penalty of law.

(3) Provided that nothing in this subsection shall be construed as preventing the bona fide use by any person of any title in pursuance of the grant of any degree, diploma or certificate of the University.

Conferment
and Grant of Degrees,
Diplomas,
Certificates
and Other Awards

45. (1) The University shall have power to confer degrees and to grant diplomas, certificates and other awards as may be provided for in the Statutes of the University.

(2) The University may, in accordance with such conditions as it may prescribe, confer any degree or honorary degree or grant any academic distinction or award to a person who has rendered distinction in the advancement of any branch of learning or who has otherwise, in the opinion of the University Senate and Council, rendered himself worthy of the degree or academic distinction.

(3) The University may, under conditions which it may prescribe, award fellowships, scholarships, bursaries and prizes and make other awards which it may consider necessary or desirable.

46. (1) There shall be a students' association, or Student Guild, in the University, which shall be constituted according to Statutes made for that purpose by the University Council.

The Student
Guild

(2) The governance of the Student Guild shall be guided by a Constitution drawn by the student body which shall be approved by the Council and which shall be in conformity with the Instruments of Identity and Statutes of the University.

(3) All students shall be eligible to become members of the Student Guild upon admission and registration in the University.

47. (1) There shall be an Alumni Association of the University which shall consist of the graduates of the University, including the graduates of its predecessor college or colleges, and such other persons as may be provided for in the Statutes.

The Alumni Association

(2) The Alumni Association shall have the right to meet and discuss any matter relating to the University and to transmit resolutions thereof to the University Council and Senate.

(3) The Alumni Association shall exercise such powers and functions as may be provided for in the Statutes.

48. This Charter shall be amended at a meeting of the University Council by a vote of not less than two-thirds of the total membership of the Council present and voting. Any proposal for amendment of this Charter shall be published and circulated to members at least one month in advance of said meeting. Any amendment or amendments so passed by the Council shall be submitted to the National Council for Higher Education for approval.
