

OFFICE OF THE LEADER OF THE OPPOSITION IN PARLIAMENT

The Office of the Leader of the Opposition was established in Parliament at the inception of the 8th Parliament, pursuant to the constitutional provisions that restored multi-party politics in Uganda in 2005.

The Office draws its existence from Article 82A of the Constitution of the Republic of Uganda, 1995 and Part IIA of the Administration of Parliament (Amendment) Act, 2006.
