Protection of Sovereignty Bill

2026

THE PROTECTION OF SOVEREIGNTY BILL, 2026

MEMORANDUM

1. OBJECT

The object of this Bill is to enact a law that seeks to provide for the protection of the sovereignty of the people of Uganda; to designate the department responsible for peace and security as the responsible entity for the registration and regulation of agents of foreigners; to provide for the protection of the sovereignty of Uganda; to provide for the registration of agents of foreigners; to regulate the funding and any other assistance to agents of foreigners and for related matters.

2. DEFECTS IN THE EXISTING LAW

Despite Uganda's efforts to uphold sovereign control, several problems continue to threaten the nation's ability to self-govern without undue external interference. Currently, Uganda has no specific law upholding the sovereignty of the country which has resulted into continuous interference in the Government's policies and programmes by foreign countries and agents of foreigners. This threatens the nation's ability to self-govern without undue external interference.

In the absence of a law to protect the nation's ability to self-govern, there has been an increase in—

- (a) the interference with the development and implementation of Government policies and programmes, which interference is funded by foreigners and agents of foreigners;

- (b) foreign aid to civil society that comes along with conditions and parallel programs which conflict with Government programs. This has given external donors significant influence over Uganda's political, social and economic landscape, which has resulted into the erosion of the values we hold sacred as a nation. It has also undermined our right to self-determination; and
- (c) the use of online platforms by foreigners and agents of foreigners to disseminate misinformation, which facilitates social discord.

Further, there is inadequate regulation of civil society. While Uganda values the contribution of civil society, there is an ongoing challenge in ensuring that civil society especially those funded by the foreigners, operate transparently and in accordance with the laws, national policies, programmes and interests of Uganda.

3. REMEDIES PROPOSED IN THE BILL

The Bill seeks to safeguard Uganda's autonomy and stability. The Protection of Sovereignty Act intends to provide for the protection of the sovereignty of the people of Uganda; to designate the department responsible for peace and security as the responsible entity for the registration and regulation of agents of foreigners; to provide for the protection of the sovereignty of Uganda; to provide for the registration of agents of foreigners; to regulate the funding and any other assistance to agents of foreigners among others.

4. PROVISIONS OF THE BILL

The Bill consists five parts and has 30 clauses.
